Hello My Darling

Tuesday
Oct 9th, 1945

Tomorrow was suppose to be the day that the camp was going to close down but since we will still be here its unlikely that will happen.

This morning I played a game of touch table football and now I'm very stiff

Going to see a Holland USO show this evening, originally the motion picture "Wilson" was scheduled to play, but that was cancelled due to the stage show. Instead the picture will play tomorrow evening and I am very anxious to see that movie since I heard it was very good.

We chopped wood for our tent stove and now the weather has gotten much warmer chopping the wood remains one of those chree months at Cassino when I've to chop wood almost daily. But my mind is concentrated on seeing and being with you sweet heart all my love kisses
Ben Logan
