My beloved Judy

Friday
0.5.17th 1941

Back in Paris once again honey, this time until Sunday afternoon. We are billeted in a very large hotel that is one great block.

Took my usual hot bath and it sure was swell. This evening we plan on going to the Eiffel tower where the all night club is located at.

Bought two more small gifts this time one for Bobby and Mike which was a water colored painting (The frame was nicer than the picture) and a small wooden novelty box for trials and facts. The box was not on the style of your honey but reckon it could be used for a candy dish.

The meals thus far are again superb, and I must praise the Army in one respect the manner in which it handles the Paris passes for the men, it certainly is a grand job.

Goodnight darling, pleasant dreams I love you with all my heart and always will. Forever yours
Carl Sagen
