AMERICAN RED CROSS

Tuesday
Oct 30th 1945

My Beloved Judy,

Tomorrow, I'm returning to Paris, in what may be my final visit to the city.

Last night I saw the picture "Kiss and Tell" which was very comical and funny. This evening I doubt if I will go to the movies cause I have to get up early to ~~to~~ get the Paris bus,

Absolutely nothing new to report darkening, just another dull day, playing cards, we only play for very small stakes, as we play not mainly for winning money, but rather to pass the time away. During the afternoon we went to the PX to purchase a few dishes of ice cream, naturally we had to sweat out the line but it was worth it, as I had three dishes of the ice cream, which but after I finished my stomach was chilled.

Reading a condensation of the novel "Black Boy" by Richard Wright. I was very anxious to get hold of that book but now I'll be content by reading the condensation.

Goodnight darling, and pleasant dreams. I love you with all my heart, and always will.

yours,
Bert xxx
