Dear Judith,

at present I am in the service club. I just saw Benny Fred Fienbaum, you know the MP, I f have to meet him in one hour because he is now on duty. I decided to come in here to write you this letter. Benny told me that Julie Wohlfield is on his way overseas. He shipped out on Tuesday evening.

Today I was drilling for about four hours. It's the first Sunday in a long time that I have to work.

I'm not even getting double time in pay for today. I think I'll quit and look for another job.

I'm beginning to get use to this man's Army. Last night was the first good night of sleep that I had. The food we get at the mess hall ~~and~~ is not fit for pigs. My buddies and I have been eating at the Service Club. A private restaurant. We pay for our food but at least it is good. The reason for the food not being of good taste is because ~~where~~ I'm stationed men pass here every day. they can't handle ~~to~~ so many many men so they make up and kind of chow that will would be easy to repair.

Some of the fellows that arrived at camp with me are leaving tomorrow, as I mentioned before my name is not on the list.

Right now on the radio, the Jack Benny program is on the air. I bet that you are probably now seated in your living room eating supper and Helene is saying its 7 o'clock put on the Jack Benny program. And right or wrong, for the 64 dollars question?

I'm going to try to get a typing job while I'm staying here. If I do, then I may remain here for sixty day because the job is considered special work. I'm a little afraid though, because of my slow speed. But there nothing like taking a (4) change. I have nothing to lose.

I have all the time in the world now.

Did your girlfriends ~~take~~ take a room out in Rockaway? What have you been doing with your time?
Did you call my mother
so up and did you mail that Mother's Day card I gave you.

Thank your sister again for the lovely writing kit, it sure comes in handy, and thank your mother for the wallet it is very useful to me. Most of all I like to thank you again for the ring it always leaves me with a deep feeling for you darling.

I hope you can understand the writing on this letter and I hope the spelling and grammar isn't too bad.

I remember on one letter that I wrote you I wrote brake instead of break. Kindly excuse mistakes cause my mind keeps spinning around. It seems to have stopped spinning now.

When I come home after the war I think I'll soon make a good husband for some woman. I hope its you. Making my bed, washing my socks and cleaning up around camp are only a few of the lessons that I'm learning.

Take care of yourself darling, and above all don't worry. Everything will be O.K.
